

Outreach from East Side of Madison, Wisconsin

The Madison Muslim Dawa Circle community is growing to the extent that during Jumah prayer, some are praying in the shoe area. While the Masjid that we are renting is already full for Jumah, we are still encountering growth.

We are located near Sun Prairie a rapidly growing Madison suburb. This makes our need for more space rather urgent to serve the growth of Islam on the East Side of Madison. Along with this growth of Islam is the need for a new permanent Masjid. The Madison Muslim Dawa Circle is currently involved in advancing its primary objectives of establishing unity among the community and ongoing Dawa. In our multimedia approach to Dawa; we advertise Islam in an open manner, make ourselves available to the public through various topical discourses, and do a regular "Feed the Needy" program as a service to bring the Muslims together fi sabilillah. Our objective is to bring the Muslim community alive and offer the benefits of Islam to all who show interest. Our weekend Islamic school for the past four years has been a staple for bringing the community together as well. In our ongoing efforts we continue to plan further Dawa events and community building activities. Additionally, we have many projects planned for the coming year, such as women's language class, food donations and further Dawa events.

Recognizing our need to expand our efforts, we have started fundraising to purchase a new Masjid, and we will be traveling to many cities throughout the United States to do so, insha'Allah. Visit our new website for more info:
